LODGE ROOM NOTES

Happenings in the lodge rooms last night.

F. OF A.

Court Iranistan, F. of A., celebrated their 21st anniversary with a banquet and entertainment in Foresters' hall, the hall being filled. Past Grand Chief Ranger F. R. Canfield was the toastmaster. Speeches were made by Supreme Sub-Chief Ranger John E. Lyddy, Great Secretary Thomas O'Loughlin of Naugatuck, and Grand Sub-Chief Ranger Charles Begley of Waterbury. The entertainment arranged was very enjoyable, being composed of songs, dances, boxing events. The committee of arrangements to whom the members give the credit for the pleasure of the evening was composed of Dennis Kehoe, William Cogan and Fred Hitt.

B. OF A.

Lillian Keller Home, B. of A., held a most enjoyable clipping party and dance in B. of A. hall. A musical program was rendered. The committee in charge included Mrs. Alex Lamond, Mrs. John Eckler, Miss Mary Quinn, Mrs. John Nordaby and Nellie Sheehan.

ADMISSION, 15c.

KNOX MAY NOT ENTER CABINET

Senate Promptly Removes His Ineligibility.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Circumstances developed yesterday which make it less certain that Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania will become Secretary of State in President Taft's Administration. Mr. Knox has indicated to his friends that he would not enter the Cabinet if there was any cloud on his title to the premiership or if there was any decided opposition to removing his constitutional ineligibility for the office. It became apparent yesterday that there will be opposition, and probably very decided opposition, in the House of Representatives when that body comes to consider the bill raising the existing embargo against Mr. Knox.

A bill designed to remove the embarrassing situation in which he has been placed was passed by the Senate late yesterday. There is a widespread opinion in the House that the measure seeks to circumvent a constitutional decree and is objectionable for that reason. Representative Champ Clark of Missouri, the Democratic floor leader, Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who retired from the leadership to make way for Mr. Clark, and Representative Swager Sherkey of Kentucky, an able young Democrat, all declared that they would oppose the measure.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

About fifty couples were present last night at the annual dance of the employees of the D. M. Read Co., which is tendered to them yearly by the company. The affair was a most enjoyable one, there being but one thing to mar the pleasure of the evening, that being the absence of Charles B. Read, who has not missed any of the dances they were started twenty-one years ago. As it was the eve of Lincoln's anniversary the large carpet department was lavishly decorated for the occasion, with flags and bunting which covered the display shelves. During the intermission the dancers retired to the up stairs carpet hall, which was also lavishly decorated and where luncheon was served at small tables. The favors were bronze Lincoln anniversary cards. There were eighteen numbers on the dance program, the music for which was by Speldek's orchestra. The following were the committees in charge: General committee, Frank Ostrom; floor committee, Jos. Smith, James Maher, John T. Birmingham and Merwin Lockwood. Decorating committee, Henry Hurlburt, John Shaw, Charles Atkins, Miss Lena Paul and Miss Agnes Delaney. Refreshment committee, Miss Jennie McHugh, Alkeron F. Warner, Alonzo Derby, Miss Grace Nichols and Miss Katherine Whalen.

Schwaebischer Maennerchor hall in French street was crowded last night by those who attended the Schwaebischer Maennerchor's 12th annual ball. The display of costumes was most unique, the maskers appearing in most cases in grotesque costumes. The grand march was at 9 o'clock and the unmasking at 11 o'clock. A dance program of 20 numbers were enjoyed. The committee in charge of the event were: Christian Haug, Jr., chairman; J. Higgins, secretary; Christian Schick, treasurer; Martin Rau, Paul Brown, Martin Feyer and H. Collmansburger. The floor committee was composed of Christian Haug, Jr., floor manager, with Willie Haug, D. Tasch, Charles Sanwald, August Ruess, Louis Haug, Paul Schultz, Martin Rau and J. Metzger as aides. The officers of the society are: Louis Hiltzinger, president; F. Scholz, vice-president; J. Unfried, recording secretary; J. Ruess, financial secretary; F. Roehrich, treasurer.

C. R. Kluger, the Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." * 1 3 5
